Professor Gray,

Attached are the pdfs of the issue 17-1. Your article is the very last in the note section. We had to adjust the citation form a little to make them conform with the BlueBook rules, but everything is the same. This went to press last Thursday. We should receive copies as soon as the end of next week. I am not sure how soon it will be up on west law but I would assume by the end of the month.

I need a mailing address so that I can forward you author copies of your article and 2 complementary copies of this issue.

Let me know if you need anything else.
